If you like this screensaver, don't forget to rate the screensaver. As long as I can remember, nothing has ever really fazed me. I'm from the school of "quit smoking, eat less butter, buy a new pair of pants, and things will get better". But I get SO sick of it. I just want to bang my head off my desk. I hate me. I don't even know how to describe it. I just feel like I've lost my edge. I mean, I work harder than anybody else I know. But lately, I just don't care about anything. I feel like I'm starting to lose my motivation, I feel like I'm losing my passion. This is all making me sad, and it feels BAD. I just want to stop caring so bad. Can you help? [June 7, 2011: Message edited by author] You have two options. 1. Trust in God. You will be given the strenght to bear up that which cannot be borne. 2. Don't Trust in God. You will be destroyed. I love that windows phone 7 is here. I like being able to text with my phone as well. Most of my friends have given in to getting a smart phone and not using there feature phones. I am SO surprised by this, most people I know are usually the type to never give up their feature phone, and yet once they got a smart phone, they will be attached to it all day, every day. I'm really loving the new Nokia candy bar. I used to not like that phone, but I've found that they've really improved in the last few years. I feel like I've lost my edge. I'm really starting to hate me. I feel like I'm starting to lose my motivation, I feel like I'm losing my passion. Can you help? [June 7, 2011: Message edited by author] In a sense, each of us has lost our edge. We all have become more ordinary. We all have become more normal in our abilities. There are a few other things going on in my life that I'm not quite sure how to handle. I guess all I can do is follow my instincts. But I do know what will be good for me. I'm going to go out of town with my family for a few days, and I'm b7e8fdf5c8

NFS Digital Clock provides the digital clock on the original first screen of NFS but with a special design. The original first screen of NFS used to be a digital clock, just like the NFS classic version. The clock in NFS is a digital clock, but not like the original first screen, this clock is dark blue, with a light background, and it has different colors. Features: * The original first screen of NFS clock background has been set as the white background. * Very good clock design. * Cool, easy to use with 16:9 or 4:3 screen mode. * Different clock times to change. * Showing the clock automatically every 15, 30, 45, 60 minutes. * When the computer monitor goes idle, the time will automatically display on the screen. * For the purpose of having a special clock background. The clock can be set to the default clock time of your country. * 20 clocks to choose from and you can also adjust the clock position to customize. * Support for 4 to 12 hours to let you adjust time according to your own convenience. * Real graphic, with cold and sharp style, is impressive. System requirements: * Windows 10, 8, 8.1, 7, Vista, Windows Server 2008, Windows Server 2008 R2, Windows Server 2012, Windows Server 2012 R2, Windows Server 2016, Windows 7, Windows Server 2003 * English version * Minimum screen resolution: 1024x768 What's new in this version: *Now, the clock position change to one of the following positions The time from midnight, to 6, 9, 12, 15, 18, 21, 24, and 1 o'clock * Fix some minor bugs If you have any problems with nfsDigitalClock v01 please contact us in CuteOtaku.com Bockmier (ade Bockmier (born 18 August 1991) is an Australian rules footballer who played for the Sydney Swans in the Australian Football League.
